2000*

4 PM to 5 PM

*JPL Library, Customer Service Area, west end of Building 111
Room 104*

*C*ome to hear the first in a series of JPL Stories.

In our continuing emphasis on problem solving and things that need to change, JPL may lose sight of some important parts of its culture — "Things to Keep." JPL's preeminence in space exploration is not an accident of history. Our leadership role is the result of attitudes, habits, and work ethics that lead to success.

Seating is limited to the first 40 attendees.
